The Order for the Day

■ (seating of the assembly)

■ Welcome and Prayer

■ Prelude and Fugue in E Minor (BWV 548)

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Considered to be one of the most intricate of Bach's major organ preludes and fugues, the prelude structure is a concerto-ritornello style with its recurring theme between various virtuosic passages. The fugue is nicknamed "The Wedge," due to its fugal subject of a widening chromatic wedge. The fugue is in 3 sections with the first and third sections highlighting the recognizable wedge theme. The second section enjoys toccata-like passages with cascading phrases periodically hinting at the fugal theme.

■ (during the applause)

■ Cortège et Litanie

Marcel Duprè (1886-1971)

Duprè originally wrote this work for a small orchestra. After the French composer transcribed it for organ, Cortège et Litanie made its organ debut on the Wanamaker organ in Philadelphia. The composer utilizes two themes, which he outlines separately and then masterfully combines for a grand conclusion. The first theme uses quiet, long, lush chords, which this organist interprets as the perfect creation, a time when there was no sin, and the world was at peace. The second theme, the Litanie chant, begins with a single flute and incessantly builds in intensity as the rhythmic and melodic theme, "Kyrie Eleison" uses the entire resources of the organ to cry out to God, "Lord, have mercy!" As Duprè combines the two themes, the perfect creation theme soars above the Litanie theme, assuring the listener that God hears our prayers.

■ (during the applause)

■ Chant de paix (Chant of Peace) from *Neuf Pièces

J. Langlais (1907-1991)

Langlais, a student of Dupré, became blind at the age of two years old. He joins many other famous blind organists such as John Stanley, Helmut Walcha, and Louis Braille, the inventor of raised dot notation who also played at a church in Paris. In addition to serving as organist for over forty years at Ste Clotilde Church in Paris, Langlais was a prolific composer and recitalist, having played more than 300 concerts in North America. Langlais composed Neuf Pièces during the height of World War II. While he was spared going to war because of his disability, Langlais and his family endured the effects of war as they lived with starvation, anger, and fear. Langlais dedicated Chant de paix, to Clair Boussac, a friend's granddaughter, who was "such a peaceful soul, so uncomplaining, so calm in the face of life." While only 32 measures long, Chant de paix, embodies a sense of peace with its spacious melody played as a 4' solo in the pedal, accompanied by long, sustained harmonies.

■ (during the applause)

■ Suite Gothique (Op. 25)

Léon Boëllmann (1862-1897)

- I. Introduction-Choral
- II. Menuet gothique
- III. Prière à Notre-Dame
- IV. Toccata

Boëllmann began his short professional career serving as organist at St. Vincent de Paul in Paris. Suite Gothique is a staple of organ repertoire, with the final movement often performed as a solo piece. The stately first movement is characterized by phrases which are echoed. Boëllmann abruptly changes the mood in a post-romantic style with the sprightly Menuet. The third movement, Prière à Notre-Dame is a musical prayer which elicits a sense of calm. Suite Gothique ends in a dramatic flourish typical of a toccata, with the dramatic minor theme played on the pedal and unrelenting allegro arpeggios played on the manuals.

■ (during the applause)

■ Ein feste Burg ist unser Gott

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707)

The chorale prelude, the predominant style of the German baroque era, uses a chorale tune as its basis. In this ornamented chorale prelude based on A Mighty Fortress is our God, Buxtehude develops the chorale melody with elaborate, expressive ornamentation. Redeemer's organ, Theodora, is built in the North German style of organ building, thus well-suited for the music of Bach and his mentor, Buxtehude.

■ (during the applause)

■ Grand Partita on EIN FESTE BURG

Karl Osterland (b. 1956)

Note: After each movement is played, a brief hymn introduction will be played. The assembly is invited to stand and join in the singing of each stanza and sit at the end of each stanza.

■ I. A Mighty Fortress is our God (Fanfare)

■ A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

Lutheran Service Book 656

1 A might - y for - tress is our God,
A trust - y shield and weap - on;
He helps us free from ev - 'ry need

That hath us now o'er-taken.

The old evil foe Now means dead-ly woe; Deep guile and great might

Are his dread arms in fight; On earth is not his equal.

Tune and text: Public domain

■ II. With Might of Ours Can Naught be Done (Trio)

■ 2 With might of ours can naught be done,
 Soon were our loss effected;
 But for us fights the valiant One,
 Whom God Himself elected.
 Ask ye, Who is this?
 Jesus Christ it is,
 Of Sabaoth Lord,
 And there's none other God;
 He holds the field forever.

■ III. Though Devils All the World Should Fill (Totentanz)

■ 3 Though devils all the world should fill,
All eager to devour us,
We tremble not, we fear no ill;
They shall not overpow'r us.
This world's prince may still
Scowl fierce as he will,
He can harm us none.
He's judged; the deed is done;
One little word can fell him.

■ IV. The Word They Still Shall Let Remain (Final)

■ 4. Das Wort sie sollen lassen stahn und kein' Dank dazu haben;
er ist bei uns wohl auf dem Plan mit seinem Geist und Gaben.
Nehmen sie den Leib, Gut, Ehr, Kind und Weib:
lass fahren dahin, sie haben's kein' Gewinn,
das Reich muss uns doch bleiben.

■ 4 The Word they still shall let remain
Nor any thanks have for it;
He's by our side upon the plain
With His good gifts and Spirit.
And take they our life,
Goods, fame, child, and wife,
Though these all be gone,
Our vict'ry has been won;
The Kingdom ours remaineth.

■ Thanksgivings, Prayer, and Blessing

The Witness of Theodora,
the Suehs Memorial Pipe Organ at
Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church in The Bronx, New York

Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church is a parish of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod where “God’s People Pray” founded in 1928 in the Wakefield section of The Bronx, New York. “Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church, by God’s grace, is a praying community of service that receives, teaches, celebrates and shares Christ Jesus.” This is our parish’s mission statement. With hundreds of members and thousands of people who have been touched directly at Redeemer, this parish is a multicultural, multigenerational evangelical catholic communion intent on being the Body of Christ in the world.

The Rev. Kelly-Ray Meritt (former Circuit Counselor for Circuit Five [The Bronx and Upper Manhattan] of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod’s Atlantic District and a constant friend of Redeemer who consistently has sought our parish’s best interests, especially guiding the parish during a pastoral vacancy in 2000), contacted Redeemer about a tracker pipe organ that he once played at Bethlehem Lutheran Church located near his parents’ home in Beaumont, Texas. He learned through his dear mother that the Beaumont congregation had decided to close and was having an estate sale of its goods in order to use the proceeds to support missions around the world. He believed that the pipe organ that was for sale might be a nice match for Redeemer.

Having learned the specifications about the height (18 feet and 4 inches—a perfect fit with Redeemer’s 20 foot ceiling), weight and size of the instrument and determining that it could fit in Redeemer’s building, Redeemer pursued an investigation. The neo-Baroque nature of this instrument with northern German specifications would make it a wonderful asset to a Lutheran congregation. In October of 2015, Redeemer’s then Parish President—Mr. Eric Sandblom—led an investigation of this instrument with a visit to Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Beaumont, Texas. Mr. W. Chris Richter, the contact person for the organ sale and the organist and director of music at Bethlehem for 19 years, welcomed Redeemer’s investigation even as other entities had been inquiring about acquiring the instrument. After consulting some organbuilders while being aware of the asking price for the instrument and the expenses for the needed work on the instrument, it seemed that this pipe organ in Texas was beyond Redeemer's reach. With sadness but with trust in our Lord's provision, Redeemer informed Mr. Richter that the organ would not be possible for Redeemer at that moment. And yet, Redeemer received a prophetic word during that time of corporate lament: "We are going to be given a pipe organ and then shall be given money to help us install it."

After many months, Mr. W. Chris Richter contacted Redeemer to inquire where Redeemer was in her pipe organ search. When Mr. Richter learned that Redeemer still was searching, he shared an amazing decision made by the saints of Bethlehem Lutheran Church: Bethlehem had decided to donate her tracker pipe organ to Redeemer and to give Redeemer $20,000 to help in the dismantling, moving and installation of the instrument in The Bronx!

Bethlehem in Beaumont was aware of the mission work our Lord was doing through Redeemer in The Bronx and believed that Redeemer was just the kind of mission that Bethlehem wanted to support with this type of legacy-affirming gift. Bethlehem also was thrilled that Redeemer would use the instrument regularly for worship, that Redeemer would be a good home where the organ could continue to sing, that Redeemer would continue to train young musicians with it, and that Redeemer would continue to be a witness to Christ Jesus in our neighborhood and beyond. This fantastic news was an answer to prayer. Alleluia! Glory be to God on high!

The Suehs Memorial Pipe Organ from Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Beaumont, Texas was built with 21 ranks (15 voices, 19 stops) and is a tracker action pipe organ with two manuals and a full AGO (American Guild of Organists) pedalboard. The organ was designed and built by Texas organbuilder, Mr. Otto Hofmann. The installation was completed in early 1964. The organ has been in continuous use since that time. The only modification was the replacement of the lowest octave of the pedal 16' flute, replacing the original metal pipes with wood. It was named for the M. E. Suehs family (pronounced "cease") of Beaumont who donated the $15,000 to build this instrument in memory of faithfully departed loved ones over 50 years ago.

Mr. Anthony Meloni, the owner of Meloni & Farrier Organbuilders was awarded the opportunity to dismantle, renovate and install this special organ at Redeemer. To prepare for this, Mr. Meloni did extensive research about this specific instrument with its patented open toeboard design and the other organs made by Mr. Otto Hofmann. In addition to refinishing the organ console, organ pedalboard and organ bench (subcontracted to Foremost Refinishers of Yonkers, New York), Mr. Meloni, his foreman Mr. Craig van Orsdale, and workers Mr. Jairo Osorno and Mr. Faber Velesquez releathered all the toeboards with the finest pneumatic leather, replaced worn rubber cloth under the Great, Swell and Pedal windchests, restored stop action leather in primary boxes, cleaned all flute pipes, checked the regulation on all pipes, provided new supports for the pedal chest, voiced the pipes and tuned the instrument. In addition to this, Meloni & Farrier replaced the original Spanische Trompete rank with a new trumpet rank made by Mr. Anton Skrabl of Skrabl Organs in Slovenia. Mr. Meloni also installed a Peterson combination system that allows for 64 different presets for organists to program for the ease of changing organ stops. Mr. Eric Mayer worked on a number of pipes that needed to be prepared and repaired for this project as well.

In 2019, Meloni & Farreier changed the Scharff II-III in the Schellwerk to an 8' Haubtois and changed the original 16' Fagott pipes with new pipes. These new ranks were made by Skrabl Organs in Slovenia.

Currently, Peragallo Pipe Organ Company of Patterson, New Jersey, tunes and services Theodora.

Dr. Jean Boehler, Redeemer's Cantor, played the organ when it was dedicated at Redeemer on Wednesday, November 16, 2016, the commemoration of Margaret, Queen of Scotland. Theodora's commissioning was part of our parish's celebration of the 500th anniversary of the first Lutheran Reformation (October 31, 2017) and the 90th anniversary of Redeemer's inception in 1928. As our theme for the 500th anniversary of the first Lutheran Reformation and 90th anniversary of our parish's inception had been, "I Shall Not Die but Live: Receiving, Teaching, Celebrating and Sharing Christ Jesus," the commissioning of the Suehs Memorial Pipe Organ as Theodora among us gave Redeemer opportunity to proclaim hope, faith, perseverance, steadfastness, and vision that only our Lord Jesus Christ inspires and gives to His people.

As “Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church, by God’s grace, is a praying community of service that receives, teaches, celebrates and shares Christ Jesus,” every gift received and shared helps to direct the cosmos to Christ Jesus and His goodness as His death, resurrection, ascension and return transform our lives forever. Theodora was installed and is played to direct people to Christ the Redeemer who comes to us in the Holy Eucharist, Holy Baptism, Holy Absolution, the Holy Word read and proclaimed, and in the consolation and conversation of the saints. As the world so desperately needs hope, this instrument is dedicated and commissioned to proclaim the hope that is in Christ Jesus. It is also a testament to our Lord’s ongoing love, interest, and investment not only in The Bronx, New York but in this praying community of service known as “Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church.”

To God be the glory!
